Already?!

The more than 4 inches of snow that fell on the Detroit metropolitan area Sunday was a surprise to early risers, and a coming attraction many were thinking would wait to a more appropriate "debut." While much of the white stuff melted, the remnants that coated the ground of the golf course on Wayne Road lingered long enough to warn residents that winter's almost here.

Thumbs down Voters reject proposals

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

For the third straight time, Romulus voters have given the "thumbs down" gesture to the local politicians' dreams of a four-year election term of office as opposed to the two-year terms they currently have.

Ballot Proposal A, an proposed amendment to the city charter which would allow four-year terms for the mayor, clerk, treasurer and the top four vote-getting councilmembers, was soundly beaten back one more time by voters in the city.

It failed by approximately one-fifth of the ballots cast, with 3,583 voting against, and 2,379 voting for, a difference of 1,204 votes.

Mayor Pro-Tem Mary Ann Banks voiced frustration at the results, but not surprise.

"I'm disappointed, but we (the council, administrators) only have ourselves to blame. We didn't really get out there and campaign actively for it, to get the message across the way we probably should have."

"I definitely feel that the four-year staggered terms would have been good, adding stability to the city government. Perhaps if we had held a public hearing or gotten together a citizens committee, it would have helped to inform people better," said Banks.

Councilman Junior Block also expressed dismay at the outcome. "It's too bad, because with elections every two years, there are lots of integral problems. For one thing, if someone new is elected, they spend the first year getting their feet wet, learning the ropes and overcoming their fear of speaking 1,489 vote margin.

"I'm not sure people realized that this could have saved the city money, by keeping down advertising costs and waiting periods," said Block. "Twenty years ago, if a part broke on a piece of city machinery, it could probably be fixed within that amount, but no more."

to the crowd.

"Then," Block said, "the second year, it's already time for them to start campaigning again. It doesn't really give them a chance."

"And for another reason, campaigning every two years is just too darned expensive, and I think a lot of potentially strong politicians keep out of it because of that, which hurts the city."

Block also expressed concern over the refusal by Romulus voters to adopt City Proposal 3, which would have allowed council and departments to make purchases up to $2,500 without going to competitive bidding. The current amount allowed for is $500. The proposal was crushed by a 4,132 to

Prices are too high now."

Other proposals city charter amendments defeated in last Thursday's election were one which would have let the city council vote among themselves to select the mayor pro-tem (chairman), instead of as it is now with the largest vote-getter selected automatically. It was defeated by a margin of 3,545 to 1,847.

The final ballot proposal had to do with allowing the city council to determine the fees paid to city boards and commissions. As it is, the charter declares they shall receive no more than $50. Voters at the Romulus polls made it unanimous by giving thumbs down to Proposal 4 by a margin of 3,524 to 2,103.

Romulus Mayor Beverly McAnally said she "was encouraged by the amount of 'yes' votes the four-year proposal got, since there was no actual campaigning for any of the four proposals. I am confident the four-year term will yet come to pass in Romulus, though."

Goode pleads 'no contest'

Former Romulus elementary school principal Richard Arnold Goode and the vice-president of the Center For Creative Studies in Detroit, Phillip Jenkins, were among those who last Thursday, pled no contest to charges of obscene and disorderly behavior in a public place before Judge James Garber in 35th District Court.

Goode and Jenkins, along with 29 other men, were arrested in three separate undercover "sting" operations by Michigan State Police officers on Sept. 20, Sept. 24 and Oct. 18.

Of the 31 arrested for allegedly soliciting plainclothed officers for homosexual acts, eight of them are currently or had previously worked in the education field.

Dennis Allen May, a bus driver for the Plymouth-Canton school system, has been suspended without pay. Another of those arrested was Richard G. Burek, principal of Stevenson Junior High School in Westland. He has been suspended with pay. Jenkins remains on the job, while Goode tendered his resignation Oct. 15.

Also arrested on Oct. 18 was Bates Henry Landis, 59, retired from his job as an administrator with the Taylor school system in 1983. He had also worked as business manager of the Wayne-Westland schools under former superintendent Harry Howard.

Landis pled guilty during his preliminary examination and is scheduled for sentencing Jan. 8.

The most recent raid saw the arrest of seven more men on the same charges, despite massive publicity and even television camera crews filming that evening. Two of the seven

Turket Day trot Drill team needs help

The City of Romulus will be well represented in this year's annual Downtown Detroit Thanksgiving Day Parade, thanks to the highly-acclaimed Romulus Horsemen's Association Drill Team.

The group has been invited to ride in the turkey day parade, which is seen on television all over the country, but after working five years toward this very goal, the drill team is ready.

They have participated in many parades in Romulus and surrounding communities and has, according to drill team member Betty Baschal, "taken away many awards, usually for first or second place."

This year alone they have been in parades in Allen Park, Romulus, Taylor, Belleville, Huron Township, Wyandotte, Waltz and, of course, at the Michigan State Fair, which they've participated in for three straight years.

According to Baschal, the drill team is available for demonstrations in the summer months, providing ample notice is given.

"We like to show off our horses," Baschal said.

Currently, the organization has 12 members, but are always interested in adding to that figure. The only requirement is being at least 14 years of age. Current members sport ages from 15 through 48.

Alas though, the drill team needs some help from residents and businesses throughout the city.

"Although it is an honor to ride in the Thanksgiving Day Parade and spread the name of Romulus around, it brings with it expenses not required in the summer months," Baschal said.

"Since we are a non-profit organization, we need to acquire some sponsorship to help us make it. We are proud to have the opportunity to promote our local communities, but we are now seeking generous sponsors to help absorb some of the costs," said Baschal. "It's really necessary."

Anyone wishing to inquire about a sponsorship should contact the Romulus Horsemen's Association Drill team, care of Suzy Petit, 39701 Price, Romulus, 48174. Price is the current group leader.

The line-up for Thanksgiving looks like this: Suzy Petit, from Romulus, will be riding an 11-year-old Appaloosa named Alphas Doodle Bug. She is a horse shoer and has been involved with horses for 26 years.

Beverly Herold from Dearborn Heights will be riding a 20-year-old Morgan-Appy mix called Chico. Betty Baschal, a resident of the New Boston area, rides an 18-year-old Appy mix that goes by the name of Charlie Be Good. She is a bus driver for the Huron school system.

Joan Locke, who resides in Huron Township, will be riding a half Arab and Saddle Bred named Shiaway. Nancy Riley, a housewife and mother from New Boston, rides 6-year-old Quarter horse mix named, appropriately enough, Spunky Housewife.

Mary Boyd hails from Flat Rock where she teaches — when she isn't riding in Romulus on top of Beau, an 18-year-old half-Arabian beauty. Sandy Gehringer of Romulus is a nurses aid and a 4-H leader, and will be starting a Romulus High School Equestrian Team. She rides Bimbalino, a 20-year-old Palomino.

Rusty Gehringer, also from Romulus, rides a Grade Pony Mare named Dusty, Colleen Boik from Wayne rides a 9-year-old half-Arab, half-Quarter with the moniker of Shu-Kabit. Westland's Melinda Underwood will be riding a 15-year-old purebred Arabian named Zebra in the parade. When not riding, she (the girl, not the horse) attends college full-time and does nursing part-time.

Belleville's entry is Jan Henderson, who will be riding a 14-year-old Racking horse named Sun. Rounding out the field is Romulus' Debbie Kowalik, who'll be riding a registered quarter horse named Fireman Amber Bar. She is a 4-H member and works as a dog groomer when she's not riding.

The alternate rider is Denise McMillan of Romulus.

My favorite food

Betty Baschal's friend, Charlie Be Good, may be a top drill horse in the Romulus Horseman's Association Drill Team, but he isn't above sneaking a bite of hot dog out of his rider's hand when she isn't looking. Giving in, Baschal said "I don't mind that he ate the first one, but I wish he'd let me have the second!"

The slightest fall can cause a structural back problem that might become a serious disability if it were neglected over a period of time.

The shock to your spinal column resulting from a fall can cause a misalignment of one or more of the spinal vertebrae. This can cause a pinched nerve; its distress may range from muscle spasms to numbing sensations up and down your legs. Your chiropractor uses modern diagnostic tests for a total evaluation of your condition. The site of the subluxation (misalignment) is located.

Gentle, drugless treatments are aimed at effectively repositioning the vertebra and removing nerve pressure and irritation to provide a normal, unimpeded nerve supply.

The name of the seventh man arrested in the Oct. 18 raid had been held back by State Police pending the issue of a warrant, which was issued last week. Lawrence Galbraith, a 24-year-old bank collector from Taylor

Judge Garber explained to the men that by pleading no contest, "you neither admit guilt nor deny it, but punishment may be handed out as if it was a plea of guilty."

New policies adopted

At its meeting of Oct. 22, the Board of Education for Romulus Community Schools adopted several new policies. These policies spelled out the procedure for retention and discipline. Children receiving two or more failing grades on his/her final report card in the area of Math, Reading or Language will be retained.

The policy on discipline has some sweeping changes relative to the elementary, junior and senior high schools. They may be perused at Wick Elementary School if so desired.

It should be pointed out that the policy maintains, in certain instances, that children be suspended or excluded from school for a variety of offenses.

Kosteva is voters' 'choice' for state rep

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

The difference came in Romulus.

It was an hour after the polls closed and heavily favored Democrat Jim Kosteva of Canton Township was still running behind Republican Georgia Gramlich. Then the results from Romulus started coming in, and Kosteva never looked back.

He defeated Gramlich for the seat in the 37th House of Representatives District by a mere 1,389 ballots, 14,667 to 13,278.

Romulus, a heavily Democratic town traditionally, held on to that convention Tuesday, as Kosteva found his winning margin among the voters there by garnishing 4,346 votes to Gramlich's 2,721. Kosteva also won heavily in Wayne, but was beaten in Belleville, Van Buren and Canton.

In Canton Township, where Kosteva makes his home and had worked as township planner up until the election, he was defeated by 12 votes.

"I'm very happy to have won," said Kosteva, "it was a tough battle, but we're very pleased to have dodged what appears to have been a Republican avalanche in some areas."

"During the last three or four weeks of the campaign, when we saw the massive amounts of money the state Republican party was dropping into the election, we knew it would be close," said Kosteva.

Some residents in Romulus claimed to have received up to three pieces of Gramlich campaign literature a day for the last weeks of the campaign.

"That's what I've been hearing, and believe me, that kind of thing costs a tremendous amount of money," Kosteva added.

Although disappointed he lost in his hometown at the polls, Kosteva said that "if you take a look at my results and compare them with other Democrats in the community, they look pretty good."

Gramlich said that although she was disappointed to lose, she was happy at doing so well in this, her first run for office.

According to Kosteva, his first order of business will be to "sit down with officials from the local communities and school districts and discuss with them their priorities and how I might facilitate some help for them."

The 37th District incorporates Wayne, Romulus, Belleville, Van Buren Township and part of Canton Township. Kosteva will be filling the vacancy left by the retirement of Ed Mahalak (D-Romulus) and will take office in January.

Spookingly good

For a few days and (shudder!) nights, Romulus was transformed via Halloween magic into a modern day Transylvania, as evidenced by this ghostly manor, which won first prize in the beautification committee's house decoration contest. The house, located at 36632 Romulus, is owned by William Casper. No word on whether or not there's any relation to Casper the friendly ghost...

McDonald's Salutes

If the Romulus High School girls' basketball team doesn't win another game it has accomplished more this year than any of its predecessors thanks to Coach Ron Bayes. Bayes' Eagles captured their second consecutive Metro-West Conference championship and have won 14 out of their 18 games. McDonald's salutes Coach Bayes for his ability to produce "winners" and train outstanding young athletes.

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

Last year Romulus High didn't field a cross country team but in 1984 the voters gave their schools the funds to do so. And given the task to rebuild the team was Dan Henry. Henry responded by guiding the Eagles to the Metro-West Conference championship and preparing the foundation for future champions.

Churches co-celebrate bicentennial

Members of the Romulus Community United Methodist Church got into the spirit of a bicenennial event, when they hosted the congregation of the Belleville United Methodist Church for a pot luck dinner Oct. 14.

The dinner was to celebrate the American Methodist Church's bicentennial, and those attending were encouraged to bring their favorite 18th century food and dress in a costume from that time period.

Following the dinner, was a program, including the singing of Wesleyan hymns, led by the Belleville church's choir members Ruth Pollard and Arone Goldkette and choir director Gwen Ashe. Ashe also gave a brief talk about Wesleyan hymns.

Devotions were led by Ethel Bannas and

DEDICATION OF

THEREFORE The party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of one (1) dollar and other good and valuable considerations paid to the party of the first part by the party of the second part, does hereby grant to said party of the second part, a permanent easement for the EDMONDS CREEK DRAIN across the aforesaid lands which said easement is described as follows, to wit:

The center line of a 20 foot wide easement, located in the N.E. ¼ Section 6, T. 3S., R. 9 E., The City of Romulus, Wayne County, Michigan, described as beginning at a point distance S. 0° 25' 30" W. 1588.5 feet and S. 89° 34' 30" E. 23.0 feet from the North ¼ corner of said Section and proceeding thence S. 0° 25' 30" W. 992.5 feet to the point ending.

Said easement being the Easterly 20 feet of the 33 foot wide road right-of-way and also being presently occupied by the relocated EDMONDS CREEK DRAIN.

Provided however, that in conformity with Section 84 of Act 40 of the Public Acts of 1956, amended, the commissioner shall deduct the award of damages from the assessment of benefits, when made, on the tract which includes the right-of-way of said drain. In case the award of damages shall exceed the assessment of benefits, the commissioner shall draw his orders for the amounts awarded in return of the special commissioners in excess of assessments for benefits, describing in each order the lands in payment whereof it is drawn, and before such drain shall be constructed such order shall be tendered by the commissioner to part entitled thereto.

Kristi Taylor

Center helps tot conquer handicap

Kristi Taylor wants to help. She wants to set the table. She wants to stir the soup. She wants to do things for her baby brother, Ryan.

But there are limits to what a 3½-year-old can do — any 3½-year-old — and her mother, Marge, describes her as being just about as active and curious as they come, in spite of her disability.

The Western Wayne County tot has a form of Cerebral Palsy that causes a stiffness in her leg muscles.

"She never played with her toes, like a normal baby would do," her mother recalled about the discovery, "and by the time she was 10 and 11 months old, we noticed she was having trouble standing up."

Once diagnosed, she began attending the Detroit Institute for Children weekly for therapy.

Kristi is fairly typical of the more than 3,000 children who are treated at the institute every year.

During the week, this personable little girl attends the Montessori School in Dearborn.

"They are teaching her to be independent — so her educational experiences mesh with her therapy goals at DIC," her mother said.

At home, Kristi can frequently be found playing on her backyard swingset or climbing from the monkey bars with her best friend, Adam, a 5-year-old neighbor.

Presently, she is trying to master pedaling her own Big Wheel.

"Sometimes it's frustrating. She doesn't understand why the other kids her age can do it, and she can't."

"But she's a whiz at putting puzzles together, creating Play Dough creatures and stuffing celery," according to Kristi's mother.

The Detroit Institute for Children seeks to normalize a child's lifestyle as much as possible, focusing on abilities as well as disabilities to provide the comprehensive care needed to achieve the highest level of physical and emotional function for that child.

More than 3,000 disabled children and young adults are treated annually at the institute for conditions ranging from mild orthopaedic deformities to severe cerebral palsy.

The institute will be on the receiving of holiday giving by way of an "Old-Fashioned Celebration" planned for Nov. 16-18 in the Hill Shopping Area of Grosse Pointe Farms.

The three-day fund-raising event is part of the Sigma Gamma Association's celebration of its 80th year of community service. Sigma Gamma founded the Detroit Institute for Children in 1920 as a diagnostic and treatment center for children with physical, neurological, developmental and emotional disabilities.

Merchants in the Hill Shopping Area on Kercheval, between Muir Road and Fisher, will be donating 10 percent of their sales on Saturday and Sunday to DIC.

On Saturday and Sunday, street minstrels and mimes will guide visitors to the Gingerbread House Workshop, a Holiday Flower Shop, a "For Children Only" Shoppers Boutique, and a United Parcel Service Mailing Center, where buyers can have packages boxed and shipped.

Calliope music, roasting chestnut and the aroma of baking pretzels will help create the mood of excitement and holiday celebration.

The event begins with a Tree and Street Lighting Ceremony accompanied by carolers who will lead in a sing-a-long at 6:30 p.m., Friday, Nov. 16, at the center of the Hill area.

Saturday's activities feature a Jamboree of continuous entertainment and food service from noon to 7 p.m. in Meade's Garage, 130 Kercheval at Hall Place. Entertainers include musicians, puppets, magicians, break dancers, and baby elephants. Admission is $5 per person ($2 for children under 12).

Highlighting Sunday's activities will be a lunch of traditional favorites — Shepherd's Pie, Oyster Stew, Welsh Rarebit — at the Cranberry Tavern in the Bronze Door Restaurant, from noon to 4 p.m., at $13.50 per person.

Time for due process

The arrest and arraignment of Stevenson Junior High School Principal Richard Buerk on charges of "obscene behavior in a public place" and disorderly conduct has left the Wayne-Westland Board of Education with a sensitive and emotional issue.

To date the board has suspended Buerk with pay and decided to file tenure charges against the administrator. The board also has been advised by legal counsel to refrain from discussing the matter publicly.

What must not be forgotten is the fact that Buerk remains innocent of all misdemeanor charges until he is proven guilty in a court of law. Any discussion, debate or analysis of the situation not only would be inappropriate, it could defame a man's character and leave permanent scars.

The Associated Newspapers reported the charging of Buerk and 30 other men as a result of an undercover "sting" operation conducted by the State Police to crack down on homosexual activities at an I-275 rest stop in Canton Township. We reported the facts of the case — the names of those charged, the dates of the arrests and the results of the trial proceedings as they became available and will continue to report these facts as they come to pass.

There is no need to comment on these charges or sensationalize the case any further. The public's right to know has been served. And what they know simply is that 31 individuals, including Buerk, have been charged with misdemeanor offenses.

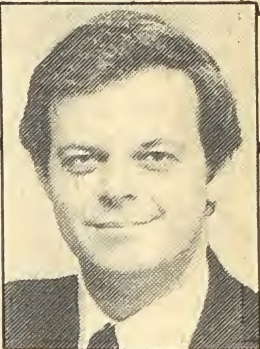

We commend the staff and administration of the Wayne-Westland Schools and Stevenson Junior High for restoring normalcy at the school. Media coverage and Buerk's sudden departure obviously had an unsettling effect that appears to have been diminished.

The first priority at Stevenson and every other school is the education of the students. Further discussion of the rest stop arrests or the impending tenure hearing will serve no purpose. It will only disrupt the educational environment and divide the community.

The school board is well advised to end public discussion on the matter. Due process simply does not include speculation and opinion.

Isaac and the apple...

Picture, if you will, Isaac Newton sitting under an apple tree. While watching the apples fall, he contemplates the force that today we know as gravity.

Physical science often offers us insight into the "laws" that explain "why" things happen ... and when and how.

Social sciences, no doubt, have greater relevance in explaining why humans do what they do than do the physical sciences. And yet, some answers or at least analogies that help clarify human behavior are offered to us in the world we live in — explained by the laws of physical science, as in physics.

This area of thought came to mind the other day during a discussion with my daughter regarding expansion and contraction. In the study of physics, lab experiments dealing with the coefficients of expansion are performed. Various materials expand or contract at varied rates as temperatures are increased or lowered. The rate of expansion and contraction can be quantified, measured and therefore predicted. Thus we build bridges of steel and concrete with "expansion joints" separated by a given distance, based on anticipated temperature variations in a given climate. Boring stuff, right?

I've long subscribed to the theory that a personality can expand to fill the role demanded by circumstances.

We see in families, business, social situations, and, yes, politics, examples supporting this hypothesis. A son is thrust into a parental role as the result of the premature death of a father.

The local service club cannot find anyone willing to serve as club president, so they elect a relatively new member. The new member wants to serve, but confesses a lack of knowledge regarding the club history, goals and membership.

An elected official campaigns for office asserting he wants to "make a difference." Once elected, he begins to serve, only to be confronted with the realities of how difficult it is to effect change operating with so little practical political experience.

Yet given time, and support from others, and with their own drive and determination, these people expand. Their command of the situation and knowledge increases to meet the challenge. Often to the surprise of casual observers, these "whiz kids" succeed.

As with the coefficient of expansion, individuals normally expand in ability, and yet we find others who contract. At times, people think they want to serve in a role which, when actualized, finds them cowering and failing.

Why? There are explanations for everything, no doubt, but I'm not sure I've yet found the answer to this one. Perhaps the reason for their failure is improper motivation. If one is moved to assume the responsibility of the presidency of company because they envied the salary, office and authority of the predecessor — they're in for a fall. For with the authority must come the responsibility. Often that hat starts to hurt when one's head tries to expand.

Certain personality types, having assumed a role for which they are not suited, become belligerent and blame others for the

Winning feeling

To the Editor:

Dear friends, neighbors, family and all who supported me during my stay in office: do not be too disappointed. I lost the bid for treasurer but in many ways I feel that I won. The Township's aims and goals are strong. The incumbents are honest and sincere and will help the new members of the board to continue towards those goals and ideals that were set in motion during my terms in office.

To serve one's community; to be totally involved; to broaden one's horizon; to gain new friendships and maintain old ones, and yet be true to one's self is my reward.

My heartfelt thanks to all of you!

Trustee,

Great coverage

To the Editor:

To the Huron Township Applefest Committee members, workers, township employees, policemen, politicians, firemen, local newspaper reporters and guests: Thank you for making ours and your 1984 Apple Festival another great success.

This was our fifth great year and with the exception of that warm rain we had Sunday, it was our best in many ways.

Our festival is the envy of many communities from the standpoint of how well everything seems to click. For miles around, people are becoming acquainted with New Boston and Huron Township because of our Festival.

The neatest thing about the success of our Applefest is that there is no secret formula to it's success; it's just the good part of history repeating itself all over again — "Enthusiastic people working TOGETHER for a meaningful common goal." I have seen people overlook and handle misunderstandings so easily because they realized that the end result (a successful Applefest) was far more important than a hurt feeling. To you I take off my hat, because it's greatness like that which makes any endeavor a successful one.

Little did we know five years ago, when we talked of having a big street dance in our town to bring people together for a good time (and Frank Viger said "Let's call it an Apple Festival"), that it would evolve into a celebration that would attract some forty to fifty thousand people from all over the state for such a fulfilled weekend.

Again, we appreciate and thank each and every one mentioned earlier and apologize to any of you that I may have missed.

PETE GLAAB, JR.
Applefest Chairman

Wedding error

To the Editor:

Please refer to the Wayne Eagle dated October 31, 1984, Page 6-B, the article entitled, "Roberts-Reed repeat vows in double-ring ceremony."

Please be aware of the error in the following statement, "The reception, following the wedding, the first ever to be scheduled at the community center."

My name is Kathie LaPorte. My husband, Tim, and I were wed on July 2, 1983, in the lounge of the Wayne Community Center. At that time, the staff informed us that this event was unprecedented.

By reading the subject article, it seems someone has been misinformed.

W-W education group forms alumni honor roll

The Wayne-Westland Education Association is celebrating American Education Week, Nov. 12-16, by kicking off a program to identify outstanding Wayne-Westland high school graduates. The project of the Association is to build an "Honor Roll" of outstanding graduates.

Mary McIntyre, a sixth-grade teacher at Monroe Elementary School, is coordinating the activity for the teacher group.

"Our goal is to provide some positive role models for students," McIntyre said. "There have been many successful Wayne-Westland graduates.

"We, as educators, are proud of their achievements. An 'Honor Roll' will be displayed in each high school. Focusing on our successful graduates

Q 1 award

failure of their own performance they are unwilling to face and unwilling to deal with head on.

It is sad to see a "shrinker" caught up in an untenable situation of their own design — or one they merely allowed to develop.

So what does all this mean?

I remain convinced that with some reservations, if you think you can, you can, and if you think you can't, you can't. But, the world would be better if we all were more realistic in our goal setting. "Shooting for the moon" is admirable, unless you are head of NASA and send up our astronauts in World War I bi-planes.

One of the laws of physics claims that wa-should help raise the goals of all students.

"Too many times it's the negative things that make headlines. We hope our project will help focus on many of the good things our graduates are doing."

McIntyre went on to say that "we need the help of area residents to identify outstanding graduates."

All someone has to do to nominate a graduate is to complete a simple nomination form and send it to the association. The graduate will then be considered for the "Honor Roll." Plans are to add to the rolls each year.

"Many graduates no longer live in the area. Therefore, it is important that we get the correct address and phone number for each nominee. We plan to contact all the nominees and ask them for a short statement concerning the role Wayne-Westland Schools played in their success story. They may also want to pass on a story or two about the old high school," McIntyre stated.

McIntyre indicated that some graduates were contacted to get their reaction concerning the project. Various ideas were discussed, everyone thought it was a good idea.

Ron E. Cobb, Class of 1946 and owner of Cobb's Drug Store, was asked what key to success did he get while in school?

Cobb replied: "I learned how to study and get my homework done!" Good students will follow this advice.

Richard Weinberg, an attorney from the Class of 51, gave the question some thought and replied: "I still see some of the teachers from time to time who taught while I was at Wayne High School. They are still Mr., Mrs., or Miss to me.

"I always considered that the instruction I received in mathematics, English, speech, history and Latin was the best possible. The teachers made it much easier to face the next four years of college. I don't know that I ever said thanks — but I have meant to many times."

Tom Weyand, Class of 51 and a technical advisor, was asked to recall a thought about his high school days. His reply indicates a feeling experienced by most high school students at one time or another.

"Whenever I think of old Wayne High, two thoughts come to mind: one is the marching band and the second is about friends. It seems that around Christmas time of the senior year we realize that this big protective bubble called 'school' is going to bust come June, and we will have to go out into the scary world.

"We start to look at classmates and wonder who we will never see again, who will get married first, who will die first, etc. Our friends become closer because all of a sudden we realize we may lose them."

The teachers on the "Honor Roll Committee" hope that this project not only will focus on success, but will make it possible for some "old grads" to find one another again.

A different look

Western Wayne County took on a different look this weekend following the first snowfall of the season. Although the white addition didn't exactly please motorists, it did provide a picturesque touch to local yards, fields and even railroad tracks.

County joins lawsuit

A lawsuit joining Wayne County with Oakland County against the City of Detroit puts county residents in position to collect millions of dollars worth of potential damages from possible overcharges for illegal sewer-sludge disposal, according to Wayne County Commissioner Milton Mack.

In a 9-4 decision, the Wayne Board of Commissioners recently voted to enter the suit that Oakland County initiated in March.

The resolution approving the joint association refers to indictment, conspiracy and convictions from the recent Vista Disposal trial in federal court in Detroit. In that case, one of the convicted was the former head of Detroit's Dept. of Water and Sewerage, with which the counties contract on behalf of local communities.

"It has been established that the sludge-hauling contracts were fraudulent. The theory behind this suit is that any excessive cost as a result has been passed on to ratepayers, and that these users of the system have been financially damaged," explained Mack. "We want to help our citizens recoup any losses coming from a questionable rate structure, and the County is the only entity that can sue in their behalf. Only the County has contracts with the City of Detroit, the other individual communities don't."

"If users have been wrongfully charged, then they all are entitled to recompense. But if we did not enter this suit and the matter was settled in favor of the ratepayer, Wayne County citizens wouldn't be able to collect a dime.

"In retrospect, this suit is the only means to assure that everyone who uses the system is treated equitable, including the residents of Detroit. If this is successful, it will provide citizens of Detroit the same fair return as suburban residents."

Mack emphasized, however, that joining the suit was not meant as a move toward gaining administrative control over the Detroit water system.

"This does not in any way constitute an endorsement or a plan to make the Detroit system a regionally controlled system," he said.

Surprise party fetes Gagnons on 50th

Virgil and Harriet Gagnon, former Westland residents now living in Stuart, Florida, recently were feted at a surprise 50th anniversary party. Hosted by their children — George Gagnon and his wife Dorothy of Westland and Ray Gagnon and his wife Jackie of Wayne — and their grandchildren, — Raymee Lawrence and her husband Larry of Canton Township, Tamera Gagnon of Westland, Pamela Gagnon of Wayne and Scott Gagnon of Wayne — there were 125 guests at the party, held at the UAW Local 900 Hall in Wayne. Mrs. Gagnon was presented with a corsage of white carnations, with gold roses and gold ribbon accents, while her husband received a white carnation tipped in gold. The Gagnons were married in Lansing, moving to the Wayne-Westland area in 1940. Gagnon is a former Nankin Township trustee, Westland city clerk. Mrs. Gagnon is the former executive secretary of the Westland Chamber of Commerce. Together they owned and operated Gagnon & Sons Gulf Station in Westland for many years. The golden jubilarians also have two great-grandchildren who helped in keeping the party a surprise.

A lawn backdrop of yellow lace and potted white and yellow flowers provided the setting for the Sept. 1 nuptial of Sara Jean Robson of Orlando, Florida, and Thomas Fitzpatrick, also of Orlando. The ceremony, officiated by the Rev. John Vaperzan, was held on the lawn of the home of the bride's parents, Darryl and Jean Robson of Belleville. The groom is the son of Mrs. Maureen Fitzpatrick of Anaheim, California. Organist for the double ring ceremony was Linda Vaperzan. Sixty guests were in attendance. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a sheer organza chiffon over satin gown, with fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline. Panels of Belgian lace accented the gown from the shoulders to the hemline and lace also trimmed the bottom of the skirt. Complementing the dress were full, lace gauntlet sleeves. A seed pearl headcap held her full-length organza chiffon veil, edged in matching lace, in place. Her cascade bouquet was of white daisies and yellow carnations, with baby's breath and greens. The bride asked Carol Crosswait of Ypsilanti, her sister, to serve as her matron of honor. She wore a yellow watered silk street-length dress with a stole style yoke of white lace, for the ceremony and carried a nose-gay of white daisies, baby's breath and greens. The bridesmaids were Linda McComas and Linda Langford, both of Florida and friends of the bride. Their dresses matched that of the honor attendant in a pale green color. Their bouquets were the same as carried by Mrs. Crosswait. The groom asked a longtime friend, Bill Pickar of Anaheim, California, to perform the duties of best man. Ushers for the nuptial were David Wilkinson, a friend from Orlando, Florida, and Neal Robson of Belleville, brother of the bride. Mrs. Robson chose a lavender-toned, muted floral print Qiana sheath with matching sheer overdress and navy blue accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was made up of white daisies and carnations. A reception for the newlyweds and approximately 100 guests was held in the clubhouse of the Lemontree Apartments in Belleville. Following a one-week honeymoon in Atlantic City, New Jersey, and Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, the newlyweds moved to their new home in Kissimmee, Florida. The new Mrs. Fitzpatrick is a 1978 graduate of Belleville High School. She currently is employed by P.E.C., an electronics firm, in Orlando.

Her husband is employed by Roma Foods in Orlando.

Hays—Holznagle wed in double-ring rite

Good Hope Lutheran Church of Garden City was the setting for the Sept. 29 nuptial of Shar-

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Holznagle on Hays of Inkster and Russell Holznagle of Westland. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hays of Inkster. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holznagle of Westland. Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white gown, with a scalloped open neckline accented by alencon lace and pearl trimmed bodice. The skirt fell into a chapel-length train of chiffon. Her matching cap and veil were trimmed in alencon lace with pearl accents on the veil. The bride carried a bouquet of blushing roses and assorted flowers with dusty rose accents. Serving as matron of honor for the ceremony was Beverly Yerian of Owosso, sister of the bride. Her taffeta gown was in a dusty rose color. It was scalloped at the hemline and ribbon accents. The groom asked his brother, Brian Holznagle, to perform the duties of best man. The ushers were Steve Hays, brother of the bride, and John Yerian, nephew of the bride. The groom and his attendants wore ascot gray tuxedos for the nuptial. A reception for the newlyweds and 125 guests was held at Roma's of Garden City. The new Mr. and Mrs. Holznagle honeymooned in Niagara Falls and Toronto, Ontario, before returning to the Western Wayne County area, where they are now residing. Both are employees of the National Bank of Detroit.

what's that sound?
...by steve o'leary

The dB's: on the record and off the cuff

The dB's have been one of the finest pop/rock groups in the world for a few years now, but unfortunately, only those music aficionados who frequent import houses have had the chance to thrill to the band's powerful brand of pure pop.

Until now, that is.

After two import albums, the boys from North Carolina have finally hooked up with a major U.S. label and the wait has proven worthwhile. "Like This," the new LP on Bearsville/Warner Bros. Records, is nearly a flawless album of 11 choice cuts guaranteed to have even the cynical singing along.

Highlights of the album include the irresistible rave-up "A Spy In the House Of Love," the introspective "Lonely Is (As Lonely Does)," and a sharply humorous ode to love gone bad, "Not Cool," wherein the protagonist sings "They say that I bought the big one/So I bite the bullet."

"Amplifier," which was also included (in a different mix) on the band's second album, "Repercussion," really shines here, both musically and lyrically. It starts out rather sharply:

"Danny went home and killed himself last night She'd taken everything, she'd taken everything"

And the final verse is no less curt:

*"She took his gun
She took his knife
He took his drugs
They took his life"*

Regardless of the dark tone to the lyrics, it's almost impossible to get "Amplifier" out of your mind, it's that immensely hummable. If there even is such a word as "hummable."

The dB's were in town recently, opening on a national tour for another of today's hottest groups, R.E.M. Chief dB songwriter and frontman Peter Holsapple took some time to talk with The Associated Newspaper's "what's that sound" columnist.

SO: So, what's new for the dB's since landing a contract with Warner Bros.?

PH: Well, I'm still pretty upset over the Cubs losing out to the Padres over in the National League. They'd have stomped the Tigers. Seriously though, we became Cub fans when we played in Chicago for a few weeks at a place called the Cubby Hole.

SO: How's the tour going? You guys and R.E.M. seem like a natural combination.

PH: Oh yeah, it's great! We enjoy each other's music and occasionally sit in with each other. We're doing about 75 percent material from the new record, but with some of our older tunes thrown in for the benefit of those fans who've been with us for years.

SO: Any interesting road stories this time?

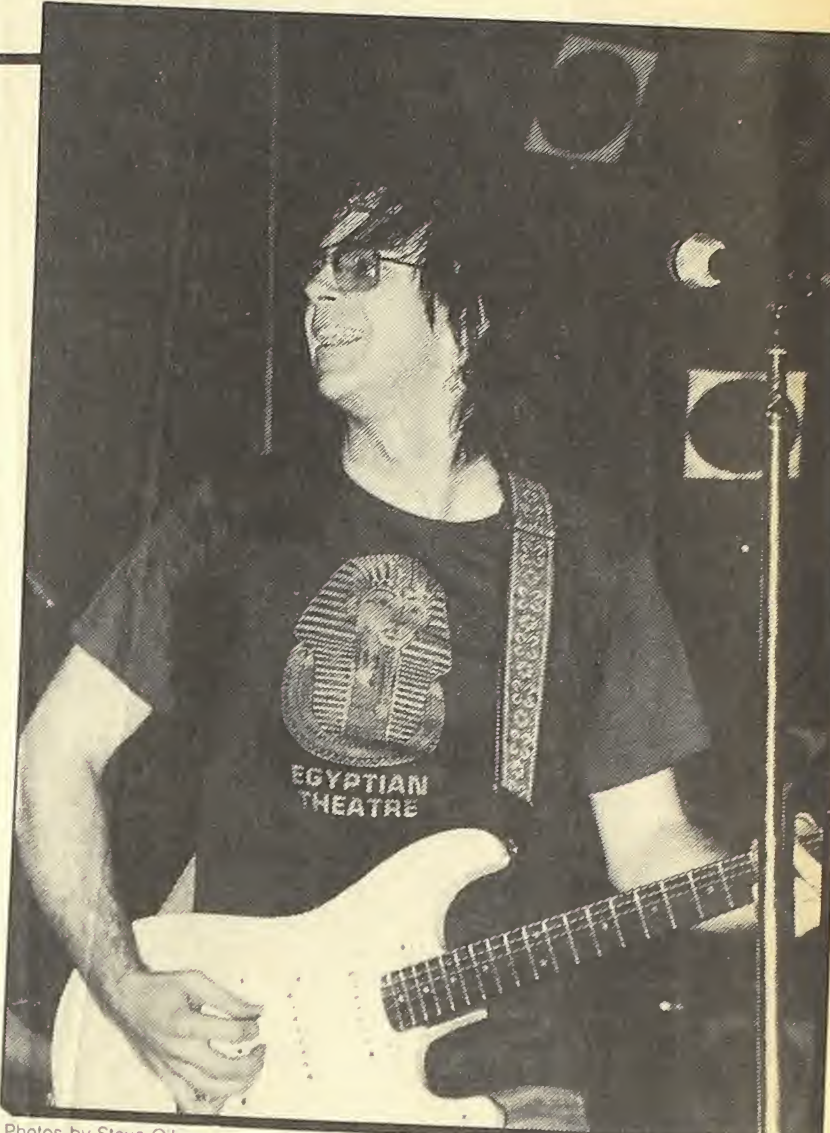

PH: Well, not really, but I have been giving a lot of thought to opening my own chain of motels. We just came from Memphis, and I took the Elvis tour and all, and decided 'this is it.' My idea is to open a chain of "Elvis Motels," where each room would have three or four televisions constantly playing his movies and a large handgun right there so if you don't like what comes on, you can turn off the tv the same way the king did. Naturally, there would be the free continental breakfast, which would be a tub 'o' butter and a spoon. The advertising would say "Eat the way the king did!"

SO (recuperating): What kind of music do you enjoy listening to in your spare time?

PH: Actually, one of my favorite groups of the moment is the Urbations, out of Detroit. I've got their first tape and I love it. If I ever decide to get married, I'm going to hire them to play it. I also listen to a lot of old stuff, like Iggy, the Rationals... I'd love to meet Scott Morgan (former lead singer of the 60's Rationals and later member of Sonic's Rendezvous and Ann Arbor resident).

SO: What are your favorite tunes on the new album? And a little insight on them.

PH: "Lonely Is" is one of them. It's funny, a lot of people think that it's a sad song, but it's really an uplifting one. It turns around with a subtle bit of optimism. "Not Cool" was written in hopes of snagging the Everly Brothers to cover it. "Rendezvous" I think is real strong, and if you listen closely you can tell I had been listening to T-Bone Burnette before I sang it. I like them all, naturally, and one of my favorites didn't even make it onto an album, it was only an import single, "Judy." It's sort of like "Amplifier," because they aren't really true stories as such, but a lot of people tell me they relate to them that way. I've always been sort of occupied with romance and the bizarre turns it sometimes takes.

Pop concert slated

A variety of music will be performed as the Wayne Memorial Vocal Music Department presents its Fall Pop Concert at 8 p.m. Nov. 15 at the Norman O. Stockmeyer Auditorium.

Although the concert is centered on the Beatles' era, many different styles of music, choreography and comic routines will be performed. Soloists will sing tunes from Broadway shows, such as New York, New York and Brigadoon.

Tickets are priced at $1.50 and proceeds will provide scholarships for the Blue Lake Fine Arts Choir Camp.

Ski operators invest for better season

Michigan ski operators estimate that millions of dollars in improvements, a healthier economy and good winter weather will help increase last season's $134 million in revenues by 5 percent.

More than one-third of the state's 55 public ski areas have improved facilities, double last year's total, according to the Automobile Club of Michigan.

State travel officials expect revenues to rise to approximately $140 million this season. The record $145 million in revenues was set over the 1978-79 season.

The Auto Club's 1984-85 ski guide lists 55 public ski areas compared to 54 last year. Misauke Mt. near Lake City and Mt. Mancelona at Mancelona will open after being closed last winter. Boyne Falls' Thunder Mt., which operated weekends, has closed permanently.

Lift tickets average $10.81, up 21 cents over the 1983-84 season. Eleven lodges raised their prices as much as $3 while three resorts dropped prices by $1 to $2.40.

The biggest improvements in Lower Michigan are at East Michigan's Sylvan Resort near Gaylor, formerly Sylvan Knob and now under new ownership. A multi-million dollar expansion includes a new 20-unit hotel featuring a heated indoor pool and whirlpool. There also will be a 172-seat restaurant, 80-seat lounge and 150-seat banquet facility at the top of all runs and reached by a new road.

Also new is a 1,400-foot intermediate run served by a triple chair lift, snowmaking covering 60 percent of all runs and cross-country skiing on loops of three, five and seven kilometers. All slopes have been reshaped or graded.

No other ski facilities in the region report major improvements. East Michigan daytime skiers will pay from 18 to $14 per lift ticket.

West Michigan weekend daytime lift fees range from $5 to $20.

Owners of Caberfae, near Cadillac, invested $2 million to widen the top of a new hill opened last year by 75 feet and to raise the resort's vertical drop by 20 feet to 470 feet. The lodge dining room is remodeled, more than doubling seating to 240, and new snow grooming equipment was purchased.

Hilton Shanty Creek at Belaire invested $1 million, adding a new building for equipment rental, a ski school and lift ticket sales as part of a two-year expansion.

Other major improvements were reported by Boyne Mt. at Boyne Falls, which made 32 main lodge rooms into 16 suites with sitting area and wet bar. Boyne Highlands near Harbor Springs added two whirlpools next to its heated outdoor pool.

Nub's Nob, Harbor Springs, added a 3,200-foot ski shop and rental building, high-performance rental skis and a second power groomer and expanded snowmaking capacity 35 percent. Pando has improved its kitchen facility and added lighted cross-country ski trails. Royal Valley has a new snowmaking machine and has remodeled its cafe, lounge and rental department.

Schuss Mt., Mancelona, built a second beginner-instructional hill, a 600-foot intermediate trail, a 1,600-foot-long expert run through heavy woods, a 1,100-foot run for racers and racing clinics only, expanded snowmaking 60 percent and added 12 chalets. Bittersweet near Otsego built two 700-foot beginner slopes, made one advanced run 20 feet higher and recontoured one expert run.

Southeast Michigan skiers will pay from $4 to $13.50 per day for lift tickets.

Largest improvements are reported by Mt. Holly, where a new 1,250-foot-long expert-only run boasts a 250-foot vertical

Restored mill is theater setting

Leo Dagnault of Westland is a featured performer in one of the state's most unusual dramatic settings — the True Grist Dinner Theater.

Located in Homer along the banks of the Kalamazoo River, the True Grist productions are housed in a restored 1887 grain mill. The castle-like mill includes three floors and a basement, filled with 12-inch-thick hand-hewn walnut and oak beams. The interior is in better shape now than the day it was opened as a grist mill at a cost of $1,910.

Dagnault, a 1975 graduate of John Glenn High School, portrays the mischievous nephew Nicki Holroyd in the True Grist presentation of Bell, Book and Candle, scheduled at 8 p.m. (dinner at 6:30) Thursday, Friday and Saturday and at 2 p.m. (brunch at 12:30) Sunday.

The comedy, performed on Broadway with Rex Harrison in the lead role, was marketed into a movie starring Jimmy Stewart and Kim Novak.

Dagnault also will serve as a principal singer and dancer in the upcoming True Grist offering of "Fascinating Rhythm," a Gershwin revue to run from Nov. 23 through New Year's Eve. Performances are given Wednesdays through Sundays with ticket prices ranging from $16 to $20 (buffet dinner in-Dagnault, 18, attends Eastern Michigan University, majoring in the theater arts.

He has appeared in several professional and amateur productions, including "Annie Get Your Gun," a Wayne/Westland Civic Theater musical, and musicals on the Eastern Michigan University, True Grist and Stockmeyer Performing Arts Center stages.

Dagnault also is a model and has appeared on television in a talent show production.

The True Grist Theater is located off the I-94 expressway, on M-60 some 20 minutes southwest of Jackson. Accommodations for theater goers are available.

drop. Parking is expanded 25 percent and 1,000 sets of rental equipment have been added.

At Pine Knob near Clarkston (now owned by the Nederlander Theatrical Corp.), snowmaking capacity is doubled, and a disco-style bar is remodeled to offer a ski-lodge atmosphere. The lodge restaurant, closed last season, will reopen. There will be 500 new sets of rental skis, a small ski shop, NASTAR (National Standard Race) racing and weekly promotional events.

Other regional facilities which have made improvements include:

Mt. Brighton, increased snowmaking 10 percent; Alpine Valley, Milford, increased snowmaking and added an indoor ski check area, and Mt. Grampian, Oxford, upped snowmaking capacity by one-third.

In the Upper Peninsula, Indianhead Mt. near Wakefield has completed a $3 million, two-year expansion.

Main dining room seating is expanded by one-third and the lobby size is tripled. A new partially solar-heated indoor recreation building includes a heated pool, with a whirlpool for 24 persons and a sauna, connected to the main lodge by enclosed walkways. Snowmaking is expanded to cover 90 percent of the slopes.

Improvements also have been made by these U.P. resorts:

Blackjack, Bessemer, increased snowmaking 10 percent and added four condominiums; Marquette Mt., Marquette, widened three expert, racing and intermediate runs, boosted snowmaking capacity 20 percent, added 25 kilometers of cross-country ski trails and added grooming equipment, and Big Powderhorn, Bessemer, increased snowmaking capacity 80 percent.

Civic Theatre offers musical

The Huron Civic Theatre will present "1776", an award-winning musical, at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday and at 3 p.m. Sunday at Huron High School, 32044 Huron River Drive.

The musical involves a period of time in 1776 when the American Continental Congress discussed, argued about and finally declared its independence from Great Britain. The story lines range from drama to romance and comedy.

The orchestra, conducted by Mark Felder, includes some musicians from the Detroit Symphony. Mary Jane Roth will direct a cast of performers from across the metropolitan Detroit area and Joanne Elliott is the producer. Marcia Aller handles the choreography.

Tickets are priced at $6 for adults and $5 for students and senior citizens; group rates are available. For tickets and information, call 782-1505.

'We gave for liberty'

Students and staff members at Vandenberg Elementary School in Wayne raised some $440 for the Statue of Liberty Restoration Fund as part of a school project conducted during the spring and fall of this year. Participants sold badges proclaiming the slogan, "We gave for liberty." Among those active in the fundraising drive were Susan Florida (left), a kindergarten teacher; Steven Trent, 5, and Margaret Embury, a parent coordinator. A display of the Statue of Liberty in the school reminded students and staff of the importance of the project.

just married

Wallace—Finley repeat nuptials

The Hemlock Road Baptist Church in Tawas City providing the setting for the Oct. 20 nuptial of Ronda Michelle Wallace of Canton Township and Charles Lloyd Finley of Tawas City.

The bride is the daughter of Robert and Arlene Wallace of Canton Township, while the groom is the son of James and Michayo Finley.

The ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Ray Herriman, with 220 guests in attendance. Pink and rose colored flowers and pink and white table dressing with bells and ribbon accents decorated the church for the nuptial.

The organist was Gorgina West, with Paul Wallace and Katie Finley the soloists. Wallace performed "The Wedding Song" for the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Paul Wallace of East Tawas, chose a formal-length gown in lace, with pink lace accents, for her wedding. Her full-length veil also was accented with pink lace. She carried a white lace basket filled with pink colored flowers.

She asked her sister, Robin Arlene Wallace of Glennie, Michigan, to serve as her maid of honor. She wore a cutaway white dress with a pink sash and carried a white lace fan, accented with pink colored flowers.

Bridesmaids were Katherine Wojahn of East Tawas, Renee Cunningham, sister of the bride from Flagler Beach, Florida, and Mary Rae Gulick, a friend, from Canton Township. They also wore white floor-length gowns with pink sashes and carried single long-stemmed pink roses with baby's breath.

Also attendants at the wedding were Joshua Daniel Wallace, 4, the son of Paul and Lynda Wallace of East Tawas; Melissa Wallace, 4, the daughter of Jim and Tammy Christopher of Iron Mountain; and Richelle LeAnn Herriman, 1, the daughter of Ray and Robbing Herriman of Glennie.

Joshua wore a three-piece suit, with ascot, for the wedding, while Richelle and Melissa wore pink and white dresses.

The groom asked Jeff Schmidt of East Tawas to serve as best man. Groomsmen were Donald Finley, brother of the groom, of Tawas City, Larry Finley, brother of the groom, of California, and Mark Tousley, a friend, of Westland. Serving as ushers were Tom Wallace, brother of the bride, of Canton Township, and Jim Wallace, brother of the bride, of Iron Mountain.

Mrs. Wallace chose a rose-colored long dress, accented with a pearl necklace, for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Finley wore a street-length grey suit.

A reception for the newlyweds and their guests was held in the Fellowship Center of the church. Assisting were Linda and Tammy Wallace and Mary Gulick. The rehearsal dinner was held at Liveys China House.

Following a one-week honeymoon in Niagra Falls, the newlyweds took up residence in Tawas City.

The new Mrs. Finley is a 1981 graduate of Plymouth Canton High School. She has been employed in the surgical department of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor for five years.

Her husband is a 1977 graduate of Tawas City High School and is employed as a meat cutter at Ed Freel's Market in Tawas City.

anniversaries

Wades mark 60th anniversary

They may not look it, but on Jan. 22, 1925 — 60 years ago — Jerry Wade and Ophelia Hester were married. He was at the ripe old age of 19, and she was 17.

The wedding, which took place at night at home in the town of Lyons, Mississippi that year, is still alive and strong almost 60 years later.

The couple met while attending school about a year before they married. According to Wade, much of their dating was done during school hours because "after school there was work to be done... farming," and "living" a mile and a half apart from each other with no transportation meant a lot of walking.

Following their wedding — just two days after they exchange their vows — the newlyweds moved to Heth, Arkansas. Wade was not happy with life in Lyons, so they moved to Heth where his father lived.

They lived in a two-room house, built by Wade's father. They started raising crops and sharing the profits with the land owner. During that same year, they started their family with the birth of a daughter, Laura.

There were 11 more children to come, as the Wades found out.

"I always wanted just a boy and a girl," Mrs. Wade said, "A son for daddy, a girl for mom."

Wade, however, preferred "about a half dozen or so."

"I wanted someone to give orders to like my dad used to do," he admitted. "I also need some help in the fields."

In 1937, the Wades and their six children moved to Earle, Arkansas. By 1948, with some of the grown-up and some married, the Wade family made one last move north to the City of Inkster.

"Well, land rent went up and there were bad crops," Wade explained. "I couldn't make a living."

Mrs. Wade has a different version of the move: "Nope, it was me and the children who decided to leave... and we left. We made it, thank God."

Of the Wades' 11 children, four have died. Of the remaining seven — Laura, John, Jim, Jeri, Lucy, Henry, Claude and Sam — all are married, or have been married, and have children of their own.

Wade went to work for the Ford Motor Company in 1950. He retired from the automaker in 1970 at the age of 65. Mrs. Wade made her career at home, taking care of their house and the children.

Today they live in the same three-bedroom home they moved into when Inkster became their hometown, by themselves and taking care of each other these days.

"It's just like it was in the beginning," Mrs. Wade said. "But one of the children either calls or comes by everyday. I know God will make a way; He has been good to us."

The Wades joined the old Second Baptist Church in 1949 and are still members in good standing.

And of their children, they admitted they must have done a good job raising them. None have ever been in trouble with the law or drugs, according to Wade, and everyone "has a job and is raising a family."

Their oldest son is a minister and has a church of his own, while the remaining children are employed in factories, schools, department stores and by the government.

On Oct. 30 Mrs. Wade celebrated her 77th birthday, while her husband, the oldest living member of his family, celebrated his 79th birthday in June.

In spite of arthritis in her leg and hip, Mrs. Wade still is able to move around without the use of walking cane. Wade still mows the lawn, shovels snow and "gets in his walking time" to such spots as the bank, post office and supermarket.

Will their children follow in their footsteps by raising large families? The Wades don't think so.

"No, I don't think any of our children will have near the number of children we had," Wade said.

"Let's see," added Mrs. Wade, "Johnny has the most and he only has five."

Their children may not have large families, but when they're all together, there are 28 grandchildren, 35 great-grandchildren and six great, great-grandchildren.

The highlight of the Wades' golden years came in 1978, when the family took their parents back to Mississippi, where they were born and raised.

"That truly was a wonderful trip," Mrs. Wade remembered. "It was my first time to see where Jerry was born."

"Though I'd never see the place again," Wade added. "I left there when I was 14 years old."

If all goes well, the Wades will be going on another trip next year, when they journey to Niagra Falls, New York.

Until then, they're reliving a bit of excitement... a 60th wedding anniversary party held Nov. 10 for relatives and friends at the Holiday Inn.

Clarks have a new son

Robert G. and Charlene L. Clark became the parents of a son on Oct. 29.

Robert Francis arrived at 8:39 a.m. that day at Otsego Memorial Hospital in Gaylord. He weighed 8 pounds, 12½ ounces, and measured 21 inches in length.

The infant's father grew up in the City of Wayne and is a 1967 graduate of Wayne Memorial High School.

Celebrating the birth are grandparents Dorothy and Elmer Clark, longtime residents of Wayne who now live in Gaylord.

It's a girl!

Eldenna (Gaddy) Velasco, a 1973 graduate of Romulus High School, recently gave birth to a 7-pound, 10-ounce baby girl, Diana Maria, at the Long Beach Naval Base Hospital in California.

Velasco and her husband, Robert, both hold the rank of corporal in the

The proud grandparents are Lenore and Cecil Gaddy of Romulus and David and Virginia Valesco of Tempe, Ariz.

My name is John

He's got blond hair, blue eyes and is as

Who is he? None other than the newest member of their family.

John Michael Sly Jr. made his "debut" on Oct. 24 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, weighing in at 5 pounds, 6 ounces.

Metro West cage champs

Glenn wins final Northwest Suburban CC crown

Finishing second at the Class A regional championships, Westland John Glenn runners proved that they possess the best Northwest Suburban Conference cross country team in the conference this season.

Coach Ed Phillips's harriers topped a strong field to earn the last Northwest Suburban crown. The league will disband in 1985.

Glenn will share the conference championship with Redford Union High School.

Redford Union had come to the league championships undefeated, while Glenn suffered a single loss. By placing first in the league meet, Glenn tied Redford Union.

Leading the Rockets to victory

Glenn's cross country team finished second in the State Cross Country Regional held recently at Royal Oak Kimball High School.

Glenn's second place finish in the 17 team field earned the Rockets a trip to the State Cross Country Championships held recently in Howell.

All-Area coming

Area high school football fans have a double treat in store for them during the next two weeks as the Associated Newspapers' sports staff unveils not one but two All-Area Teams.

Next week the ANP will announce its Class B elite club of prep gridders and also honor its "Coach of the Year".

Glenn, Robichaud to host district tourneys

The "second season" will begin for high school girls' basketball teams next week as the district tournaments get underway across the state.

The Michigan High School Athletic Association this week announced the sites for the playoffs, and Westland John Glenn and Dearborn Heights Robichaud have been designated as host schools.

Glenn, which captured a district and regional title a year ago, will make its bid to repeat at home. Coach George Sommerman's cagers will have to do so, however, at the expense of Canton, Salem, Livonia Churchill and Northville which will invade the high school the week of November 24.

In the meantime, Wayne Memorial will travel to Dearborn High in quest of a district title. Also slated to see action in the Pioneer gym are Garden City, Livonia Franklin, Taylor Center and Dearborn.

Belleville and Romulus teams find themselves at Monroe where Adrian, Monroe, Temperance Bedford and Ypsilanti will do battle for the Class A district championship.

With the exception of New Boston Huron, most of the local Class B teams will compete in the district at Dearborn Heights Robichaud. Dearborn Divine Child will be favored to emerge from the district with the title and the ticket to the regional playoffs.

The Falcons must get past Dearborn Heights Crestwood, Annapolis, Robichaud, Inkster and Cherry Hill.

Huron has been assigned to Carleton Airport, where Milan, Saline, Ypsilanti Lincoln and Willow Run will be represented.

The winners of the Class A playoffs at Glenn will advance to the regional tournament at Canton High School where regional champs from the Dearborn, Wyandotte-Roosevelt and Monroe District Playoffs will meet.

The district champ from Robichaud is slated to see action at the Class B regional tournament at Allen Park High. Winners from St. Clair Shores-South Lake District, River Rouge and Monroe Jefferson make up the regional.

Belleville is favored to capture swim title

Undefeated in league competition, Belleville High girls' swim team will be favored to capture the 1984 version of the Wolverine "A" Conference championship when the teams convene at Monroe on Thursday.

Coach Sam Vicchy's Tigers have amassed a 6-0 conference and a 13-1 over-all record after dunking Trenton 102-71 last week.

"I guess you'd consider us the favorite (to win the league championship)," said Coach Vicchy, "but Wayne Memorial is pretty solid. It should be an interesting meet."

The preliminaries will be staged on Thursday and the finals decided on Friday.

In the meantime, Reiko Snider took two individual events as the Tigers breezed past Trenton. Snider touched in at 2:30.2 in winning the 200-yard individual medley and turned in a 1:10.1 for her triumph in the 100-yard backstroke.

Belleville put together a foursome of Barb McManus, Susan Duda, Tracey McCormick and Jeanie Schurr to finish in 2:07.3 for the winning time in the 200-yard medley relay.

Denise Clem's 186.75 points stood up as the top total for diving, and Karen Kotlarczyk was clocked in the winning time 57.2 for 100-yard freestyle.

Belleville also had the winner in the 100-yard breaststroke in Millie Delaney who posted a 1:20.2.

sport. Once again, depth paid off, with no really outstanding performances, but every runner being very consistent in their effort. It was nice to bring the trophy back to Glenn," Phillips concluded.

The girl's team finished fourth in the league meet, but had several outstanding performances.

Junior Karen Opp won the girl's race with a time of 19:37 easily outdistancing the field of 43 runners.

In addition, Laura Grazulis earned All-League honors with a sixth place finish in a time of 20:57.

"I cannot say enough about Karen. She really took the race out and was determined to be the best in the field. She has really started to peak at the right time of the season. Grazulis, once again, ran well. She has been having assorted health problems, but when the gun goes off, she is really a tough runner. The team was hurt when Pam Eldridge came up with a stress fracture and had to be scratched from the race. Pam was the only runner who would challenge Karen in the field. Hopefully, Pam will be ready for the state competition. She is really primed to do well if the fracture heals in time. Once again, the team story was one of injuries. Healthy the girl's team is pretty good, but half the runners are injured and can't perform," Phillips concluded.

"I am really pleased the team made the state finals," noted coach Ed Phillips. "It was really a team effort. None of the runners ran exceptionally well, but the depth of the team really came through in this regional. I am really pleased for the seniors, since there is no better place to end a high school athletic career than in the state finals, where they ran against the top 24 teams in the state."

Dan Leidel was singled out for praise. A sophomore Leidel, in the biggest race of the year, came through for the Rockets.

"Hopefully the runners will get "pumped up" and run their best See ROCKETS, Page 2-C

Ten pin topics

It seems they weren't taking many siestas at Fiesta Lanes as several outstanding scores were recorded there recently.

It's difficult deciding which effort, the individual or the group, should receive primary recognition but I think perfection stands just a small step ahead. This is especially the case when you have a sleeping giant such as Mark Hammel.

Mark is generally the quiet gentleman who does his job on the lanes in a low key business like manner. The kind of bowler who will win an occasional pot, enough to cover some of the expenses, come through in a pinch to win a few points, and be a good solid team member.

Mark is generally the quiet gentleman who does his job on the exceptional series — an 827 total. This was done on games of 259-268, and the magic one, 300.

While this was going on another group of non-sleepers were setting their own record. The first investment team, also rolling in the Friday Classic, tallied an eye catching team series total of 3479. This actual (no handicap) score was put together through the efforts of Steve Allen 695, Bob Bittner 632, Rich Mewton 694, Gary Vignary 727, and Dave Tulak 731.

Our condolences to the opponents of this formidable group on this night. The losers? of the match were Mark Amo 681, Harlan Boyo 468, Al Gilreath 659, Tom LaRue 696, and Keith Swafford (244-267-256) 767. It must be H--- hitting 3271 actual, getting 207 pins in handicap, and losing the match by one, yes one, pin with 3478.

Town N Country Lanes had its share of high rollers as Arne O'Brien joined the ranks of perfectionists with a 300 game and a 710 series. Gary Koslakiewicz flirted with the ultimate game when he hit a 298 for 698; Dave Mahaz hit 217 average for the season; Joe Gouaiana had 745; Tim Hoepner rolled a 285; Barry Little hit 276; Brian Tadrzak finished with a 726 series on a 279 game; Doug Markham had 715; and Tom Wimont totalled 722.

Joe Jaskolski, of Town N Country Lanes, is walking around with his head held high as 15 year old daughter, Charlene broke a 24-year-old record for Town N Country Youth League Girls when she hit a 637 series on games of 184-205-248. This total was 187 pins over her current 150 average.

Super Bowl action was led by Terry Tesarz rolling 205-213-298 for 716. Larry Kilgore was close behind with 277 and 734; Bob Duman also hit 277 for 635; Vince Whipple was well over his 128

avg. with a 229 game and 610 total; and for the ladies Renee Keppen had a 244 game.

At Westland Bowl, Mike Voyles was among the high game shooters with a 278 game; Steve Fedulchak totalled 675 on games of 223-234-218; Dave Gaabo hit 657 which was 177 pins over avg. on the strength of a 244 and 627; Ed Murtha was 153 pins over with 219-267 and 660; and the ladies were led by Marge Brothers with 221-227 for 627 and Toni Smith hit 223-212 for 603. The youngsters were paced by Jason Savino with a 214 (105 avg); Mark Konopateki hit 223-221 for 625; Jeff Emert rolled 216-246 for 624; and Eric McDougall had a 231 game.

In tournament action at Westland Bowl, the top five qualifiers in the annual 700 tourney were Joe Gouaiana (745), Larry Traver (711), Jerry Maynor (674), Don Daugherty (674), and Jim Nowkowaski (669).

In the match game stepladder eliminations, Joe Gouaiana sat back and watched as the other four qualifiers took their turns at each other for the chance to meet him in the finals.

Although Larry Traver maintained his No. 2 position to meet Joe in the final match Joe prevailed by stringing 5 in a row for 245 to win this year's title.

sports briefs

When Keith Gates left Belleville High, the all-state football star shunned neighboring University of Michigan for Michigan State. He hasn't regretted the decision.

Gates has been in the thick of the Spartan action this season and just missed making history when the Spartans lost a thrilling 23-20 decision to Big 10 Conference leader, Ohio State.

Gates, a fullback who rushed for 101 yards against the Buckeyes a year ago, was instrumental in the confrontation, however, again the Spartans fell short when, on a fourth down situation and a yard away from a first down, and a possible upset, Coach George Perles decided to go for it and not call upon his field goal kicker.

Perles and the Spartans didn't make it.

But, against the Indiana Hoosiers Keith rushed for 96 yards — his longest jaunt an 18-yard run that set up the Spartans' first of two touchdowns in their 13-6 win.

Gates has a 4.8 yard per carry average for the Spartans this season and has helped keep the Spartans in title contention, the first time in over two decades.

There was a host of area runners who also accepted the recent challenge of the Detroit Free Press' International Marathon.

And the list from Canton includes: William Boyd, who finished 61 over-all in 2:42.10; Dick Schimmel, 65 in 2:42.25; Allan John Cook, 206 in 2:55.16; David Frank, 448 in 3:07.45; John Lipford, 524 in 3:10.34; Charles Brien, 525, in 3:10.37; Paul LaChance, 602 in 3:13.37; Steven Bauslaugh, 743 in 3:18.35; Spiro Karras, 749 in 3:1857; Michael Anger, 1181 in 3:23.25 and Robert Holten, 1366 in 3:39.18.

Also participating in the 26.5 mile gruelling race from Canton were: Jeffrey McLain who finished in 1470 position in 3:42.10; David Moore, 1622 in 3:37.08; Thomas Robert, 1696 in 3:49.41; Richard Szydlowski 1785 in 3:52.34; Gary Mailloux, 1917 in 3:56.52; Daniel Boughner, 1925 in 3:57.03; Tim Anderson, 1965 in 3:58.29; Donald Russell, 1970 in 3:58.40; Duane Fair, 2149 in 4:07.28; and Scott Yamazaki, 2167 in 4:08.17.

Other Canton Township runners included: Irwin Chmielewski, 2273 in 4:13.05; Lance Lavaque, 2291 in 4:13.46; Brad Niva, 2418 in 4:21.08; John Staron, 2483 in 4:22.22; Michael MacMillan, 2483 in 4:25.11; Larry Novara, 2514 in 4:27.08; Donna Raymond, 318 in 4:32.08; and Robert Tellier, 2616, in 4:33.57

Others from Canton are: Dawn Tellier, 332 in 4:34.00; Bill Van Proyen, 2663 in 4:37.37; Richard Shepard, 2669, in 4:38.26; Shanon Causley, 2670 in 4:38.33; Keith Gorman, 2778 in 4:51.33; Timothy Magers, 2822 in 4:47.47; Robert Lohaus, 2874 in 5:08.35; Wilford McHirter, 2897 in 5:14.40 and Dick Brumage, 2908 in 5:18.28.

Those from Romulus making it across the finish line during the Free Press marathon are: James Krey who finished 873 in 3:24.06; Gerald Bular who finished 1,376 in 3:39.42; Raymond Kubisiak, 1690 in 3:46.30; Bobbie Lay, 1668 in 3:48.41; William Panduku, 1856 in 3:54.47; Pat Twitchell 229 in 4:09.04; James Valentine 2455 in 4:22.56; Antonette Sitarski 416 in 5:06.06 and Sharon Preston, 435 in 5:20.56.

Wayne residents who competed in the marathon and their times and finishes are: Ken Sova, 279 in 2:59.55; Edward Phillips, 351 in 3:03.29; Douglas Smith, 1747 in 3:51.21; Ronn Cobb, 1911, in 3:56.38; William Ebbitt, 1967 in 3:58.33; Tim Cullen, 2116 in 4:05.27; Carol Weyand, 351 in 4:38.09; and Thomas Weyand, 2665 in 4:38.10.

At the recently conducted Michigan Recreation and Parks Association state golf tournament for women, Wayne finished with 562 strokes and in eighth place. Romulus was 10th with 708 strokes for the women's division and finished eighth (432) in the men's championship flight. Canton Township and Wayne men's teams did not qualify because they failed to field the required five golfers.

Battle Creek won the men's state title, while Jackson captured the top honors in the women's championship round with 460 strokes. Par for the men was 71 and women, 75, at the Binder Park Golf Course in Battle Creek. Doug Anderson of Midland fired a one-under-par 70 to win the men's medalist title, and Jackson's Jean Harpowski turned in an 85 to top the women's field.

All-Area is up next

The 1984 high school football campaign came to an abrupt end for all of the local teams, but before jerseys and uniforms are put away for next year there's still the important business of picking the top players. The Associated Newspapers' sports staff is in a huddle now and when the writers break they will have the coveted All-Area line-up available. Look for the "B" Team next week on these pages, followed by the top Class A players and the Coach of the Year the week after.

race in the finals," Phillips added.

In the girls regional, the Glenn Girl's cross country team narrowly missed a return trip to the state finals finishing fourth in the 14 team field, 10 points out of third, the last qualifying position.

Highlighting the girls performance was junior Karen Opp who was second in the 79 runner field with a time of 19:49. Seniors Laura Grazulis 11th, and Pam Eldridge 14th also qualified.

"It is just great to see these three athletes make the state finals," said Phillips. "They have worked very hard this year to improve and it really is paying off.

"I really thought that Opp was going to win the Regional, but her finish was excellent. She is really one of the quality runners in the state and should really have an excellent race in the state finals. Laura ran her usual consistent race and will do very well in the finals. Eldridge really showed guts with her performance.

Wilson in NMU swim line-up

Westland John Glenn swim standout, Kasia Wilson, is a member of the Northern Michigan University women's swim team this season.

The 18-year-old freshman, who was a two-time letter winner while at John Glenn, will be competing in her specialty, the breaststroke. She captured the gold medal in the 100-yard breaststroke in the Northwest Suburban Conference championships while a junior in high school. Wilson also captured the Rockets' team as a senior. She's majoring in biology.

Guide for volunteers available

A free "Volunteer Opportunities Guide" for residents of Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb counties is available through United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit (UCS) by calling 833-0622.

The guide is a tool to help explore volunteering options available to help individuals achieve personal goals, while making communities better places in which to live.

Working men and women have opportunities to learn new skills and to use talents that are not now applied in their paying jobs. They are able to explore new career areas and to make contacts that may help in their present positions.

Students are able to gain the practical experience that employers look for, while working with people who can provide a reference or job lead later. They can take a close look at a potential career field before investing in expensive education.

People who are single or who are new to a community can make new friends and learn firsthand about services and institutions where they live. Retirees can become involved in short or long-term projects to address today's vital issues, while keeping their schedules flexible.

Homemakers can participate in interesting activities outside of the home or take a step to paid employment.

Opportunities for these individuals, as well as for groups, are listed in the UCS

"Volunteer Opportunities Guide."

Scouting: It's for adults, too

Adults volunteer their time and talents to Girl Scouting because they are interested in and concerned with children. It's that simple.

Girl Scouting in Huron Valley Girl Scout Council involved nearly 3,000 adult volunteers — college students, grandparents, couples, career and young working persons, and moms and dads. Many of these nearly 3,000 volunteers have positions other than working with a troop on a regular basis.

The opportunities for adults are as broad and varied as they are for the girls. Whether your interest, talents or occupation are in aviation, finance, horticulture, auto mechanics, geneology or running a small business there is a place waiting for you in adult Girl Scouting. Your talents could be put to use on a short-term, periodic, regular or one time basis.

Opportunities available to adults through Girl Scouting include special training and earning of Continuing Education

Units; Council positions such as board member, trainer, committee member, program resource, event director, media representative, graphic artist, a volunteer manager called a troop serices director or working with a troop as a leader, assistant leader or troop consultant.

Girl Scouting is part of an international movement devoted to helping today's girls become self-confident and self-reliant young women.

So next time you hear those words, "Girl Scouting," remember that Girl Scouting offers adults, as well as girls, places to visit, people to see and worlds to explore Join the fun, contact the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council at 483-2370 to volunteer. Call today.

Schupra, a 1977 graduate of Riverside High School in Dearborn Heights, recently completed FBIG's month-long career development school for new agents, which prepared him for the state insurance licensing examination and provided instruction in all areas of property-casualty and life insurance.

His training included Michigan State University's Institutes on Life and Property/Casualty Insurance and two weeks of instruction at the company's home office in Lansing.

Prior to joining Farm Bureau Insurance Group, Schupra was a direct sales representative for League Insurance in Southfield.

you help me write a letter to the owner asking him to make good on the "bad gas".

Sincerely, E.L. Dear Gas Station Owner:

On Nov. 12, 1982, I purchased a tank of gasoline from your station ($20) and began my drive to Ann Arbor, Michigan. During the trip, my 1977 Cadillac began to shake, jerk and make very odd noises. Upon arriving at my destination, I put my car in the garage of the home I was visiting and used another car for transportation for the next few days.

On Nov. 18, 1983, I made the return trip back to Canton and the car repeated what I explained above. On Nov. 18, 1983, I returned to your gas station so that you could hear and see for yourself what I was experiencing. While sitting in my car and speaking with you, you pointed out to me that the exhaust system had just fallen off the vehicle. Because there is an auto service shop adjacent to your station, you suggested that I talk with the owner. They checked my car and told me that the filter needed replacing and that this was the problem. They replaced the air filter. This, however, did not correct the problem and upon looking further, they informed me that the metal gas lines going into the carburetor were unscrewed and should be repaired by cutting the metal lines and replacing a rubber insert on the end of each line. I refused to allow this method of repair and asked them to wire up my fallen exhaust system so that I could return home. This request was complied with.

On Nov. 19, 1982, my car would not start, and I called a towing company in Plymouth, Michigan, which subsequently towed my car to a Cadillac dealership. They repaired my automobile and provided me with an invoice stating "runs rough (possible bad gas)." They also provided me with a container of gasoline taken from the tank of my car, which container is still in my possession. The total expenses incurred me to date are $415.62.

I have been trading with you for in excess of five years. I became your customer first because of your informing me that you sold Boron gasoline. Secondly, I have asthma and arthritis and am unable to pump my own gasoline. Your station provided me with the full service convenience that I needed. I am writing this letter in an attempt to amicably resolve this matter. I have spoken to you on numerous occasions and you have thus far refused to take any responsibility for my dilemma. I would appreciate hearing from you no later than Nov. 4, 1983, expressing your intentions.

Sincerely, E.L.

RESOLUTION: The service station owner ignored E.L.'s request for a resolution. E.L. subsequently sued the station owner in small claims court and won a judgment of approximately $225.

Due to space constraints of this column, the original letter to The Letter Writer is always shortened.
